

Anthony Senior

Anthony enjoyed a 20 year career in the Civil Service before coming to the Bar in 2002. He has a great range of experience in Civil Law specialising in anti-social behaviour cases, particularly for social landlords, he has experience in possession claims, injunctions and committal for breach of injunctions.

He also has multi-track, fast track and small claim cases involving all aspects of Road Traffic, including Credit Hire for claimant and defendant.

He has experience of the Information Appeal Tribunal

He receives instructions in private landlord-tenant disputes.

Anthony has received instructions from several Government departments, including the HMRC, and the Civil Aviation Authority.

YEAR OF CALL

2002

AREAS OF PRACTICE

CIVIL

Credit Hire

Property

Anthony Senior

NOTABLE CASES

Fawdington's Mini v Diamond Insurance : (Newcastle County Court 17th March 2009) Which dealt with the issue of credit hire by a commercial car dealership

Christopher McGlade v ICO and Redcar and Cleveland Council : [EA/2009/0019] (IAT 23rd November 2009)

Memberships

Personal Injury Bar Association

Qualifications

Teesside University LLB (Hons)