

Mark Styles

Mark practices in all areas of serious criminal law and is an experienced criminal junior specialising in criminal defence work with a busy practice on and off circuit.

With a consistent heavy caseload of good quality criminal work, he travels widely dealing with both leading junior and led work often in multi-defendant heavier cases.

He has undertaken many cases involving allegations of historical sexual abuse and has regularly defended in multi-defendant lengthy complex fraud cases and allegation of organised crime group activity in class A drug conspiracies, encrochat, large scale burglary operations, and paedophile group offending.

He has a wide range of experience in diverse criminal cases over many years having appeared in complex Serious Fraud Office cases for the defence, allegations of assisted suicide, causing death by dangerous driving and serious explosives offences linked to extremist activities.

YEAR OF CALL

1988

AREAS OF PRACTICE

CRIME

REGULATORY