

James Willoughby

James's practice encompasses advocacy, drafting and advisory specialising in the financial aspects of family separation and divorce as well as costs and civil work

Family

Divorce & matrimonial finance, Schedule 1 Children Act 1989 applications. Also applications in relation to Divorce and Children matters arising in connection with family breakdown and divorce.

Civil

Cohabitation, constructive trusts, Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 matters, costs & general civil work

YEAR OF CALL

2005

AREAS OF PRACTICE

CIVIL

FAMILY

James Willoughby

Professional Qualification

James Studied at Edinburgh University (MA), La Terza University In Rome And City University (GDL) In London.

After graduating he pursued a career in investment banks in London working for UBS Warburg, Goldman Sachs and the Bank of New York before turning towards the legal profession.

Memberships

He was called to the Bar in 2005 (Middle Temple).