

Laura Doherty

Laura commenced her common law pupillage in November 2020 under the supervision of Sam Healy. She welcomes instructions in all areas of Chambers' practice.

Before commencing pupillage, Laura worked with the Royal College of Nursing dealing primarily with fitness to practise matters and DBS disputes. She later worked as a County Court Advocate representing both Claimants and Defendants in small claims and Infant Approval hearings. Laura has also conducted parole hearings and independent adjudications under the Prison Rules.
