

Zackeray Fixter

Zackeray secured tenancy in September 2025 after a common law pupillage under the supervision of Crispin Oliver.

Zack studied Law at Durham University and completed his BPTC in Leeds alongside his LLM. After completing his studies, Zack began working as a County Court Advocate, a position he held for two years. This position entailed representing clients in a variety of small claims matters throughout the North East. During this time, Zack secured two marshalling placements in Teesside and completed a mini-pupillage with Dere Street Barristers.

Prior to coming to the bar, Zack also undertook work as a mediator. Zack chaired mediations across the North East encompassing a wide range of small claim contractual and commercial disputes
