

Emma Gough

Emma is a highly sought after member of our family team who practices across all areas of family law. Emma is known for her practical and considered approach, solicitors tend to use her repeatedly because they are confident that they can rely upon her to handle cases robustly and strategically.

Emma accepts instruction in Financial Remedies, Private Children and Public. She also accepts instructions on a public access basis.

Emma has broad experience in the field of financial remedies and her practice encompasses cases involving issues such as conduct, intervenor claims, the dissipation of assets and concurrent high value personal injury proceedings.

In the area of private children Emma has been involved in a number of international and domestic relocation cases, fact finding hearings with allegations of serious domestic abuse, alienation, sexual abuse and has recently been in a High Court matter representing children in Human Rights Act proceedings.

Emma has a broad public law practice and is relied upon by solicitors to provide robust advice to vulnerable clients in a compassionate way.

Emma is known for working collaboratively with the well-being of her clients at the forefront of her mind. She has attention to detail and excellent client handling skills which she derives from combined life and professional experience.

YEAR OF CALL

2004

AREAS OF PRACTICE

FAMILY

Divorce & Domestic Violence
Public & Private Law – Children

Emma Gough

Memberships

Member of the FLBA and the Newcastle Medico-Legal Society

Qualifications

First Class LLB (Hons)

Awards

Blackstone's Prize for Academic Excellence.

Other Interest

Emma is a divorced mother of 5 children, her life is very busy and this is how she likes it. Emma enjoys cooking and reading and is n ever happier than when by the sea.